

H. Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense.

1. The electricity bill wouldn't have been so high if we ..... (not/ use) so much electricity.
2. You ..... (catch) the bus if you hurry.
3. If they had been more careful, they ..... (not/have) an accident.
4. If the weather ..... (not/be) bad, we would go swimming.
5. If she ..... (break) the window, I'll punish her.
6. If you called him names, he ..... (be) angry.
7. If he had read the book more carefully, he ..... (understand) it.
8. We ..... (watch) TV if we stay in tonight.
9. He would come out with us if he ..... (have) more time.
10. If you ..... (send) for a doctor, he wouldn't have died.
11. If I ..... (see) him, I'll ask him to call you.
12. She ..... (get) the job if she had the right qualifications.
13. If we ..... (not/go) to that awful restaurant, we wouldn't have got sick.
14. If you ..... (be) hungry now, I'll make something for you to eat.
15. If the baby ..... (be) hungry now, he would drink his milk.
16. If the weather ..... (get better), we would have gone sailing.
17. If I were you, I ..... (apologize) immediately.
18. If you try hard, you ..... (can) succeed.
19. I would buy the car if it ..... (not/be) so expensive.
20. If Jill had been there, she ..... (help) you.
21. If she ..... (come), shall I tell her to wait?
22. If he had been careful, he ..... (not/break) his leg.
23. His car will be stolen if he ..... (leave) the keys in it next time.
24. If he ..... (be) lucky, he'll win.
25. If she ..... (pay) the bill, the phone wouldn't have been cut off.

I. Turn the following into their alternative form:

e.g. If he doesn't come, she will be very angry.

Unless he comes, she will be very angry.

1. If we don't go to bed early, we'll be late for work.
Unless .....
2. If they don't pay the rent, they will throw them out of the house.
Unless .....
3. He won't pass the test unless he studies harder.
If .....
4. He will answer if he is not too busy.
Unless .....
5. Unless you wear a tie, they won't let you in.
If .....
6. If I don't know the exact address, I will never go.
Unless .....