

15. Indirect Speech

Say

Tell

Direct speech

say, " _____ "

say to sb, " _____ "

e.g. He said, "It's quite hot in here."

e.g. He said to me, "It's quite hot in here."

Indirect speech

say (that)

e.g. He said (that) it was quite hot.

tell sb (that)

e.g. He told me (that) it was quite hot in there.

Expressions with Say and Tell say : say good morning etc., say my prayers, say sth, say so, say for sure tell : tell the truth, tell the time, tell sb my name, tell sb's fortune, tell a lie, tell a story, tell a secret, tell sb the way, tell the difference, tell one from another

1. He he would us the story as soon as he arrived.
2. Did you "Thank you" when he helped you?
3. Don't I didn't you they were coming. Of course I you.
4. The teacher us she was happy with our results.
5. "What did he?" "He he would meet us later."
6. Never me a lie again.
7. She that he her he loved her.
8. You mustn't this secret to anybody else.
9. me what you really think of her.
10. He he had never seen such a ridiculous film before.
11. To you the truth, that's the first time I've seen him.
12. something! Don't just sit there!
13. I can't for sure but I think she's divorced.
14. Can you me the way to the supermarket please?
15. The twins look alike. I can't one from another.